

Alone in my room* by Linsey Gosper

Colour Factory Gallery, 409 – 429 Gore St, Fitzroy, + 61 3 94198756

Exhibition dates: July 8 – 30, 2011

Alone in my room is about female sexuality, psychology and self-eroticization. The images depict anonymous, lone figures in private suburban locations. Taken from a female perspective, they reclaim the pleasure and the performance of active female sexuality. Interspersed between these figures are domestic images that reveal her physical space, and landscapes that represent her head-space or emotional state. These images encourage a re-imagining of female identity and psychology through the landscape.

Linsey Gosper is a Melbourne based artist and curator. She completed a Master of Fine Art at the Victorian College of the Arts in 2009 before becoming the gallery manager at the Colour Factory Gallery. Linsey has exhibited extensively at artist run, regional and commercial galleries in Australia. Her most recent solo exhibition was at Window 99 artist run space and she has upcoming group exhibition at the Perth Centre for Photography in August. Her work is in the University of Newcastle collection and private collections in Australia.
